

Supplementary Figure 1. 24-hour National Institutes of Health Stroke Scale (NIHSS) as a function of infarct growth between 2 and 24 hours after endovascular treatment (obtained from cubic spline regression). Light blue shading indicates the 95% confidence interval.